

Flavio Man

Flavio Man was born in Tucuman, north place of Argentina in 1987. He lived in a small city between mountains, jungle, desert and buildings. This experience and contracts is part of his art. After finishing high school in 2004 he studied Fine arts in UNT.

Years later he went to Buenos Aires to study film editing in ENERC.

He participated in several projects in different festivals such as Cannes and Montreal.

He recently attended the workshop of abstract art with Juan Astica, learning the language and expression of abstract art.

The artist currently lives and works in Berlin.
