

Wissam Beydoun

Born in Beirut, Lebanon, in 1961, Wissam Beydoun received his Bachelor of Arts from the Lebanese American University with the Sheikh Zayed Award distinction. Beydoun's work revolves around the human body and its relations with other beings and things. This particular subject allows him to express his sentiments on life and experiment with organic forms. He has held several individual and collective exhibitions in Lebanon and France, and has participated in Sursock Museum's 'Salon d'Automne'. His work is featured in numerous private collections.
