

Born in Syria in 1987, Anas Homsy, based in Berlin, graduated from the faculty of Fine Arts in Damascus. His vibrant canvases burst with energy and his colorful palette and gestural brush strokes allow him to create a style of his own. The seemingly human shapes that characterize his paintings come to life and convey subtle emotions. He participated in several collective exhibitions as well as workshops. Anas is a member of the Syrian plastic artist's Union. His work exists in private collections around the world.

Art on 56th Gallery is an independent visual art gallery in Beirut, Lebanon. It was founded by Noha Wadi Moharram in 2012, and is rooted in Gemmayzeh, the capital's booming artistic and cultural neighborhood.

In addition to presenting a roster of local artists to an international audience, the gallery's mission is to promote both established and emerging contemporary artists from the Middle East and beyond. This results in a colorful exchange, highlighting the powerful meaning of images and creativity within a society.

The gallery exhibits artworks in a large variety of media, including painting, sculpture, work on paper, photography and video installation.
